

BPos - "Higher" \(URB Exclusive\) / July 18, 2014

The super heroes of San Francisco based hip-hop group BPos are back and ready to sprinkle more of that positive energy around the world with an inspiring new video "Higher", a track off of their upcoming album, "Positive Beings" which was produced by Tahaj the First and directed by Demondre Ward. With the Golden Gate Bridge set as one of their backdrops, it's refreshing to see that these musicians are consistently incorporating their hometown in their videos as they take us on a spiritual trip through the neighborhoods of Frisco, consciously spreading the message that anything is possible if you reach high enough and never give up. As the crew, Goodword, D-Wiz, Khafre, Johnny Venetti, and newest recruit, Gyr! Ab'Strakt preps for the launch of their latest project, you can expect nothing but good vibes and dope lyrical content once the album is released; substantial material worth being left on repeat. Cop their 5th full-length installment "Positive Beings" set to drop next Tuesday, July 22nd on behalf of One League Entertainment and will be available for both physical and digital distribution.
